

English Idiom

Green With Envy

Green With Envy - to be very jealous

- I am green with envy, because you have a new car.
- Why are you green with envy?
- My brother is green with envy, because I have a really good job.
- My friends are going to Europe for a few weeks, and I am green with envy.
- We are green with envy, because you have an amazing flat in the middle of the city.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com