

English Idiom

French Leave

French Leave - French leave is a departure from a location or event without informing others or without seeking approval

- They went on French leave. I have no idea where they went, or when they are coming back.
- We need to take French leave, so we can go to the beach tonight.
- The girls went on French leave. They went to the city for a few hours.
- Our landlord went on French leave, now we can not find him. We need him to fix the window.
- Why did you take French leave? We were looking all over the place for you.

English The Easy Way

English-The-Easy-Way.com

