

Nouns

Pronouns

Pronouns replace the noun. A pronoun can be used as the subject of the sentence or the object of the sentence. Most of the time a pronoun refers to something already mentioned or understood by the listener or reader.

The different kinds of pronouns are:

- Personal Pronouns - are pronouns that refers to the person or thing performing the action
  - You are going to the store.
  - They are going to sleep.
- - are pronouns that refers to non-specific beings, objects, or places
  - Everyone is going on the trip.
  - Is someone going to help me clean the house?
- Demonstrative Pronouns - refer to specific things, people or beings
  - That is a nice car.
  - This is my coat.
- Reflexive Pronouns - are pronouns used when when sentence has the same subject and object.
  - I baked the cake myself.
  - We fixed the care ourselves.

- Interrogative Pronouns - are used to ask a question
  - Who is going to the store?
  - What are you doing?

English The Easy Way
English-The-Easy-Way.com